

DEATH REVEALS SECRET WEDDING

Mrs. Cora Fowler, of Larchmont Manor, Tells of Marriage to Armand De Loris After the Latter Dies.

Bride and widow within five weeks to the experience of Mrs. Armand De Loris, nee Cora Fowler, of Larchmont Manor. Her most intimate friends learned only yesterday of her secret marriage and the sudden death of her husband.

Aside from the bare announcement that Armand De Loris, of Paris, and Miss Cora Fowler, of Larchmont Manor, were married at Montreal on April 16, and that Mr. De Loris died suddenly on May 20, no further information was given.

When Mrs. De Loris was seen at her parents' home she said:

"It is true that Mr. De Loris and I were married in Montreal on April 16. My husband fell ill of heart disease and died May 20. Further than this I have no information to give out."

"Did you sleep?" Mrs. De Loris was asked.

"Yes."

"Was your husband married on his deathbed, Mrs. De Loris?"

To this question Mrs. De Loris gave no reply.

"Did your husband die in Larchmont?"

"He did not die in either place, but his body was brought to New York."

"Why did you keep your marriage a secret, and why did you not announce the death of your husband?"

"I have reason of my own for keeping the matter quiet. I would not have announced it at this time had it not been for my mother, who persisted in making a statement of the facts."

99th YEAR COWPERTHWAIT & SONS

Housekeeping in the Summer Time

IN A BUNGALOW on a slope of the Catskills—in a New York City apartment—or down by the sea sands—Summer housefurnishings mean an airy comfort.

Bungalow furniture—prairie-grass furniture—white enamel beds—cool matting—filmy draperies.

Cowperthwait & Sons have for many, many years devoted special attention to these summertime needs. They have explored every field of production and picked out the best.

Cash or liberal credit—and prices that are convincingly correct at the very first inspection. Prices always marked plainly on the tags.

The thousands who spend the Summer comfortably at home, at the "greatest Summer Resort in America"—New York City—will discover many little household conveniences, within reach of a very modest pocketbook, indeed, which will add immeasurably to the enjoyment of hot weather.

"Everything for housekeeping"—especially hot weather housekeeping.

Bungalow Furniture for the Summer Home

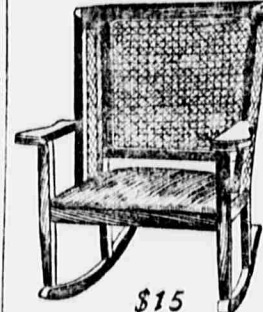

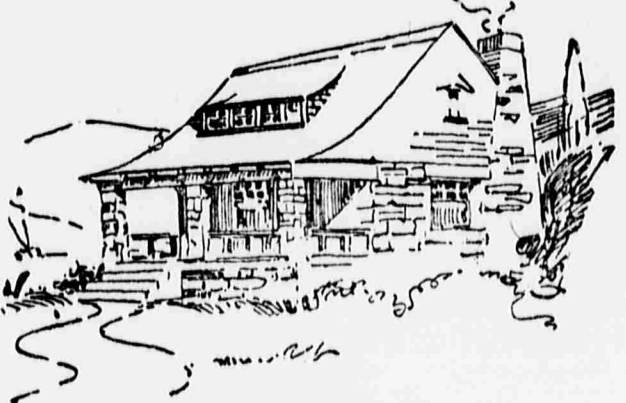

INCONCEIVABLY pretty, light and airy Bungalow claims first place as the ideal furniture for the Summer veranda.

Being made of fumed oak and selected cane, it is particularly strong and serviceable and handsome.

When cushions are desired, they are furnished in bungalow cloth in pretty shades of tan, green and blue.

The suburban home, the town house, the seashore villa or the mountain retreat can be made more enjoyable during the Summer time by a generous use of this smart furniture.

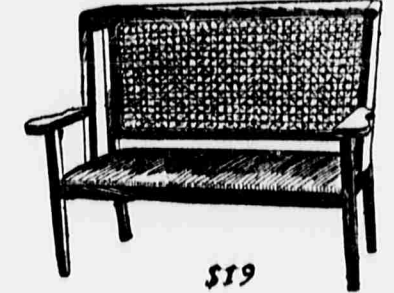

Its use need not be restricted to the porches, as it will be found a becoming addition to the interior of the house and at quite small expense.

Carpets, Rugs and Bedding

ALL CARPETS ARE MADE, LINED AND LAID FREE OF CHARGE.

Savonneries, $1.45 a yard.
Extra Wilton Velvets, $2.15 a yard.
Axminsters, $1.15 a yard.
Velvets, $1.15 a yard.
Palisade Velvets, 98c a yard.

All-wool 3-ply Ingrain, 1 yard wide, $1.10 a yard.
All-wool 2-ply Ingrain, 1 yard wide, 88c a yard.
Union Ingrain, half wool, 1 yard wide, 87c a yard.
All-wool Terries, in plain colors, 1 yard wide, 95c a yard.
Cordemon Stair Carpets 5/8 yd. wide, 45c a yard; 1/2 yd. wide, 36c a yard.

To the making of beds and bedding our best effort is given—a large factory being devoted to this branch of our rapidly growing business. Everything that enters into the construction of a pillow or mattress is sanitariously pure—the price having nothing to do with this highly important feature—the cheapest and the most expensive mattress being subjected to the same rigid examination.

Quaint Mission Clocks, $2

ISN'T there a little niche in the seaside or country house you will occupy this summer where this clock can be placed to advantage? Aside from its prettiness it is a good time-piece. In the mission room, the den or the sleeping apartment it will give you its cheery companionship and faithful work.

Cane Seat Oak Chair, $1.45

Two other styles at the same price—$1.45 each.

Fashionable Reed Go-Cart, $6.40

MIGHT as well be at the North Pole as to be out of fashion even in so small a thing as a go-cart. You'll think more of your little laughing babe when she's sitting snugly in this smart reed carriage, with its aristocratic bearing and fine, easy running gear, rubber-tired wheels and easy spring, than if she were in a cheap affair that smart people would not tolerate. It is handsome enough to accompany you on your summer outing—wherever you may go.

Solid Oak Bureau, $5.98.

THE low price doesn't begin to suggest the good qualities of this carefully made oak bureau. With its French plate mirror—shaped at the top—its four drawers and nice proportions, it is a becoming piece of furniture. It is carefully made throughout and well finished. The same bureau with an oval mirror is supplied at a similar price, should it be preferred.

San Domingo Mahogany Chairs

THE finest mahogany comes from San Domingo. In beauty of grain, richness of color, it is the wood of woods for elegant furniture. Whether in a dull or highly polished finish, there is a charm about the wood that gives indescribable pleasure. It is doubtful whether we have shown prettier chairs this season than these. The delicate green hair-cloth seats harmonize delightfully with the dark, rich red of the finished mahogany—producing perfect pieces of furniture for the most pretentious city or country home.

Arm Chair, $19.50

Small Chair, $12.50

Carlsbad China Berry Set, 45c

SEVEN pieces of daintily decorated Carlsbad china at a price that seems almost incredible. The decorations consist of flowers and gold stippling. Maybe you'll want a set for your country house in addition to the set you get for your city home.

Everything for Housekeeping—Cash or Liberal Credit.

Prettiest Summer dress $14.75

IT'S THE COOLEST and most sensible, too—the lowest price heretofore was $18.75, and you cannot duplicate this stunning model in New York to-day for less than that. It's a dress every smart dresser will be eager to see.

The material is a very fine evenly woven cotton voile—all the dainty new styles for Summer are included at the special price—$14.75, and in the most effective colorings and combinations.

Soft, light shadings such as lavender, light green and blue—also pink and champagne—made full waist, with tucks and dainty lace—short, fluffy sleeves, shirred girdle and full round skirt, tucked and trimmed with lace and insertion, made over white organdie drop skirt.

$10.00 for Suits, the smart coat suit of the season, in natural linen; also top-of-at effect, box style, strictly tailored; full skirt; also tight-fitting coat, 3/4 length, made of imported reps, in white or colors—collars and cuffs of different color linens, such as lavender, green and blue; also all white, with black combination; suitable for mourning.

$35 for suits worth up to $50.

$25 for suits worth up to $37.50.

Linen suits, in several exclusive models, including the Kaffee jacket, the loose, boxy hip coats, and the loose or semi-fitted lengths—all very effective styles and models—majority are hand embroidered—jackets and skirts, short and long sleeves, and a variety of plaited skirts—also the new circular skirt. All are daintily trimmed in heavy applique, lace and embroideries, and the new eyelet-hole effects in various designs.

$7.50 and $10.50 steamer rugs, special sale to-morrow, $4.95

THE popular kind for automobile and steamer. Few people ever think of buying any other than $7.50 to $10.50 rugs, so they're bound to create a stir at $4.95 here to-morrow while they last. They're the extra size, just what everybody wants.

A Pennsylvania maker had 125 left from his season's output, and not caring to hold such a small number at a regular price he sold them to Simpson Crawford Co. about half price. So we turn them over to our customers on a like basis.

We've been selling the same kind all season at $7.50 to $10—best quality, pure wool yarns, extra large size, fringed ends, mixed surface—various desirable styles of plaid backs—rich, artistic colorings.

A sale of Summer footwear at $2.45 that's incomparable

INCOMPARABLE because no other store is offering the latest styles in low shoes for Summer made to be sold up to $5, at $2.45. When you see these unusual values you'll be glad you did not miss this sale.

$2.45

Stirring Shoe News—That's the line that brought the crowds Monday. Shoes offered to-morrow are not the remainder from the Monday Sale—there were none left. When values are so good that all are sold in a day the sale is worth attending, considering several hundred pairs comprised Monday's showing.

All the very latest styles are included to-morrow—fashionable new shades of tan, desirable blacks and those popular white duck low shoes with hand-turned or welted soles. Cuban heels of wood or leather. . . . We've prepared for this sale on a broad scale with extra salespeople.

4,000 pairs of women's $2.50 and $3.00 Oxford ties, $2.00

They include the handsomest lot of shoes ever placed on sale in Greater New York. Such good values as the patent coltskin or the black glazed kid with patent or kid toe-caps; hand-turned soles or Goodyear welted soles; white canvas Oxford ties, with hand-sewed, welted or hand-turned soles, in blucher or straight Oxford styles. All at $2.00. . . . We've prepared for this sale on a broad scale with extra salespeople.
